

Stage III Melanoma - What do you mean There is a chance I might not live!?

Donna Hartley
www.donnahartley.com
donna@donnahartley.com
(530) 581-2005

1. How did you react to the news that you had Stage III Melanoma?
2. After you had your meltdown – what did you do?
3. How did you get Melanoma?
4. As a single mom, how did you talk to your daughter who was only 6 years old at the time?
5. Where did you go for treatment?
6. What was your reaction after waiting 11 days to get your results?
7. Why was your recovery so successful?
8. What do people need to know to prevent skin cancer?
9. How do you protect your children from skin cancer?

Facts:

- March 1, 2002, it is the second life lesson that Donna's mentor had spoke about.
- Melanoma month is May.
- More than 1 million new cases of skin cancer will be diagnosed this year.
- 1 in 5 Americans will develop some form of skin cancer in their lifetime.
- 1 American will die every 65 minutes of Melanoma.
- New FDA Standards for sunscreen propose labeling that rate UVA and UVB protection along with the SPF rating.
- 90% of skin cancers are caused by sun exposure.
- Learn more about Donna's fight against Melanoma http://donnahartley.com/melanoma_survivor.htm